

Judges Bio:

Robert Hargrove – Orlando, Fl. Color Guard

Robert earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Texas at Austin and his Master's Degree from Webster University. He is currently a Production Manager for Walt Disney Entertainment Show Development and Production in Orlando, Florida. In his role he has been fortunate to work on many new shows, parades and special events. Just recently, he worked as choreographer for the Pirate and Princess Parade Flag Choreographer.

Robert is an active adjudicator for the Florida Federation of Judges (FFJA), Central States Judges Association (CSJA) and United States Scholastic Band Association (USSBA). He judges Winter guard and Marching Band competitions in Florida and around the country and in the summers of 2005 and 2006, Robert was part of the color guard staff of the Boston Crusaders.